Salmon Homecoming turns 21

Welcome to our territory! Come Ashore! Eleven canoes participated this year.

SEATTLE – One of the most successful Salmon Homecoming celebrations in the 21-year history of this important event took place last month on the Seattle waterfront. Over the celebration's three days thousands of people experienced Native culture up close and learned about the spiritual, cultural, economic and environmental importance of the salmon to our region.

The celebration was kicked off with a warm welcome from Muckleshoot Tribal Council Chair Virginia Cross and Suquamish Chair Leonard Forsman. Following their remarks, Governor Jay Inslee greeted the crowd with a rousing speech addressing the dual importance of preserving salmon habitat and maintaining strong relationships between Washington Tribes and state government. The opening ceremonies were capped off by Muckleshoot and Suquamish youth song and dance groups, who performed for Governor Inslee and gave him gifts.

Welcome to our territory!

On Saturday, a Canoe Welcoming Ceremony was held at the waterfront. Eleven canoes, coming from as far as Warm Springs, crossed Elliott Bay to line up along the downtown waterfront where Tribal Council member Kerri Marquez performed her formal duties on behalf of the tribe by welcoming them to Muckleshoot territory and inviting them to come ashore to share food, song and dance.

"School Days" was a great success, too, with 400 -500 students attending each day of the celebration to learn about the importance of salmon to our people. The many activi-

Amy Dais, flanked by current Auburn Mayor Pete Lewis and Mayoral candidate Nancy Backus, with her professional staff at TRIBECA's Grand Opening

Named after New York's trendiest neighborhood, home to such stars as Leo DeCaprio and Beyonce, Auburn's newest professional salon, TRIBECA, hopes to bring some of the cosmopolitan flavor of its East Coast counterpart to South King County. In addition, according to Mayor Pete Lewis, it has the distinction of being the first-ever Native American-owned business on Auburn's Main Street.

TRIBECA is the creation of tribal member Amy Dais, who brings years of experience and a lively imagination to her new business. Here's how Amy describes TRIBECA:

"We are a large scale full-menu day spa in the heart of downtown Auburn. We love every service we provide; from full body massage, to relaxing pedicures and a fabulous results-oriented facial to give you a healthy, youthful glow.

It is our aim to deliver amazing results to keep our guests talking and returning. We carry the world-renowned Dermalogica skin care line and only use the most quality, professional ingredients and products for our manicures/pedicures/massage and body treatments!

Our facility is perfect for your special occasion and available for private party venues such as baby showers, bridal showers, bachelor pre8 or post-party events. We look forward to coordinating a "taste-test" menu of services for you and your party while you enjoy your company and can help facilitate light snacks/desserts!

We welcome you to come and try our lovely, urban-chic day spa in downtown Auburn!"

BERNICE WHITE

Muckleshoot Tribal Elder Bernice White, born in 1916, was "Keeper of the Flame" making it her life's work to defend her tribe's Treaty Right to take salmon at their usual and accustomed places and to preserve and protect tribal sovereignty and culture.

Election 2013

Another important election is upon us. We have the opportunity – and obligation – to cast an informed vote for local candidates and a ballot Proposition to support our Fire Department. We urge all Muckleshoot voters to participate in this important election.

The Tribal Council’s Public Affairs Committee has spent a great deal of time over the past several months interviewing local candidates and reviewing campaign material to help us understand their positions on issues important to our community. Through that process the Committee selected a number of candidates to support. We wanted to share those decisions with you.

Yolanda Trout is running for position 4 on the Auburn City Council. Her priorities include working with law enforcement to keep our community safe, supporting schools and promoting a strong economy by encouraging business growth and development. Yolanda understands the importance of an open and cooperative relationship with the tribe and pledges to work with us on issues of mutual interest.

Rich Wagner has served with distinction on the Auburn City Council for 24 years. He is committed to improving the quality of life in our region by protecting neighborhoods and the character of our community. He also pledges to work cooperatively with the Muckleshoot Tribe. He is seeking re-election to position 6 on the City Council and we urge your support of his candidacy.

Nancy Backus is running for Auburn Mayor after serving 11 years on the City Council. Her campaign platform includes a robust program of economic development, transportation improvements, a stronger police department and building and maintaining effective partnerships with neighboring cities and the Muckleshoot Tribe. The Tribe has a long and positive relationship with her and we support her candidacy.

Proposition One. There is also a very important issue on the November ballot that deserves the support of the Muckleshoot Community. Voter approval of King County Fire District 44 Proposition One is critical to the maintenance of fire fighter and Emergency Medical Technician staffing levels, emergency response times and fire and basic life support service levels. This is our community’s fire department and it deserves our support. We urge a yes vote on King County Fire District 44 Proposition One.

Ballots must be postmarked by Tuesday, November 5th. You can also drop your completed ballot off at the Philip Starr Building Reception Desk and the tribe will mail it for you. If you haven’t received your ballot contact King County Elections at 206-296-8683 and a replacement will be issued. Muckleshoot participation in this election is important for many reasons. Not only will the decisions voters make impact our community, but also remember that many from our community worked hard to remove barriers to Native voting. Exercising your right to vote honors that hard work and sacrifice.

A GIFT FOR THE GOVERNOR. Gov. Jay Inslee (center) is seen here at the opening ceremonies of the annual Salmon Homecoming Celebration held at the Seattle waterfront. The Muckleshoot Tribal School song and dance group performed for the governor and gave him a piece of artwork as a gift. Muckleshoot Tribal Chairman Virginia Cross and, behind her, Suquamish Tribal Chairman Leonard Forsman are on the left in this photo.

Frequently Asked Questions

Question: What services are supported by this Fire Levy?
Answer: The revenue must be spent on the delivery of services; these funds are identified to maintain current firefighter positions and support daily operations of the department.
Question: Could the cost I pay increase?
Answer: Only if assessed valuations continued to decrease.
Question: What happens if the Levy Fails?
Answer: Unfortunately, the District will have to layoff firefighters and brownout one or more of the three staffed fire stations.
Question: What does "browning out" a station mean?
Answer: It's the temporary closing of a station, depending on staffing levels for that day.
Question: When was the last time we approved this type of Levy?
Answer: The District has never asked the voters to approve this type of Levy.
Question: What happens if home values recover faster than expected, can you reduce the excess levy?
Answer: No, the levy stays in place for the duration and amount approved.

Why is the Levy Necessary: fire districts in Washington State are primarily funded through property taxes. Property taxes are based on the assessed valuation of each property within the district's boundaries. Over the last 5 years, the District has realized a reduction in assessed valuation of over 39.8%

What is an Excess Levy ~ commonly known as a "maintenance and operations" levy, it would allow the Fire District to collect in excess of its statutory limit of $1.50 per $1,000 of assessed valuation.

This measure would authorize the District to levy taxes in the amount of $650,000 per year (six hundred fifty thousand) for four consecutive years with collections beginning in 2014. Collected at an approximate levy rate of $0.31 per thousand of assessed valuation

What if the Levy does not pass?
Further cuts to the district Budget will be made in 2014 and again in 2015. These cuts will reduce the Districts ability to provide service to the district. The response capabilities, especially during the day will be reduced and response times will be increased.

WHAT WILL THE LEVY COST?
The owner of a home with an assessed value of $200,000 will pay approximately $60 per year or $5.00 a month.
The owner of a home with an assessed value of $300,000 will pay approximately $90 per year or $7.50 a month.

Automatic Fire Alarms 98
Vehicle Fires 12
Brush/Wildland/Illegal Fires 22
Other Fire Responses 8
Emergency Medical Aid 1,092
Motor Vehicles Accidents 60
Hazardous Conditions 72
Public Service Calls 160
False Alarms 98
Other types 93
Total 1,738

Restoring Lost Revenue: The average home value has dropped approximately 40% in the Fire District since 2009. If your home was valued at $300,000 in 2009, you paid about $450 per year in Fire District taxes.

Table with 4 columns: Home Value (same house compared by year), Regular Levy Rate $, Excess Levy Rate $, FD operating taxes $

* the same house would pay $ 126.00 less in fire department operating funds than was paid in 2009.
This Levy expires in four years and would no longer be collected.
The Levy would never collect more than $ 650,000 each of these four years.

Affordable Care Act – ACA – at Muckleshoot

We are going to implement the new health care act-Muckleshoot Managed Care- in phases at Muckleshoot.....

October-December, we will be asking people to come to the HWC and sit down with Mona or Ronette to see if they are eligible for either Medicaid or one of the Health Insurance Plans through the State.

The Tribe will sponsor and pay monthly health care premiums for some of our high cost CHS patients that are not eligible for Medicaid. This reason for this is to off set health care costs of these patients to our CHS program. Patients that will be sponsored by the Tribe will have insurance coverage on Jan 1, 2014.

If you are single and are not employed, you will be eligible for Medicaid and will need to sign up for Medicaid here at the HWC with Mona Milan, Ronette Bailey or Maria May. We are looking to hire 4 temporary employees to assist with the enrollment process... but these temp employees they will be required to take training by the state before they can do this. Patients that are eligible for Medicaid will be eligible beginning on November 1, 2013.

If you are eligible for Medicaid or one the of Health Care Exchange Health Insurance Plans at NO COST to you, this is considered an alternate resource, and according to IHS Federal rules and regulations you will be required to follow through with the application process, or your CHS eligibility will be denied-this is the way it's always been-no change....

The Affordable Care Act or Health Care Reform has made it possible for more Native families like yours - moms, dads, aunts and all to qualify for free or low cost health insurance through the Washington Health Benefit Exchange. You won't be turned down due to diabetes, heart disease, cancer or other existing medical conditions.

Washington State has allowed everyone to apply for health insurance through the Washington Health Benefit Exchange beginning on October 1, 2013. However the Muckleshoot Health and Wellness is going to help the Muckleshoot Community apply for health insurance on November 1, 2013. Insurance coverage will take effect on January 1, 2014. There will be a lot of advertising through television, radio and some people will be calling you. There will also be information at malls, stores and pharmacies. They will all try to get you to apply.

We encourage you to come to the Health and Wellness Center beginning November 1, 2013 so we can help you sign up for the right health plan. Here are some frequently asked questions about the Washington Health Benefit Exchange.

1 Q. I'm an American Indian/Alaska Natives (AI/AN). What do I need to know about the Washington Health Benefit Exchange?

A. The Washington Health Benefit Exchange will benefit American Indians and Alaska Natives (AI/ANs) by providing opportunities to apply for free or a low cost health insurance plan.

You may be eligible for Washington Apple Health (formerly Medicaid), or one of many low cost health insurance or Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP). There will be one online application to determine whether you are eligible.

2 Q. Why do I need health insurance coverage if I receive services from the Health and Wellness Center?

A. The Affordable Care Act does not change your eligibility to get health care through the Health and Wellness Center. AI/ANs who enroll in a health insurance plan, Washington Apple Health, or CHIP, can continue to receive services from the Health and Wellness Center the same way they do now. But by enrolling AI/ANs benefit by having greater access to services that may not be provided by the Health and Wellness Center. Also the Tribal community benefits through increased resources through CHS and the Health program.

3 Q. What if I already have insurance through my job or am already on Washington Apple Health (Medicaid)?

A. If you have health insurance through your employer or have health insurance through a government sponsored program such as Medicare, Washington Apple Health, CHIP, Veterans Affairs or TRICARE, there is nothing you need to do—you are covered.

4 Q. As an AI/AN, am I required to have health insurance?

A. No, members of federally recognized Tribes and descendants who are CHS eligible at the Health and Wellness Center do not need to apply. So, you do not have to apply for health insurance. But since CHS is the payor of last resort you may be required to apply for Washington Apple Health or any other health insurance plans as long as there is no cost to you to be on these plans.

5 Q. How can I apply for an exemption so I am not penalized or fined by the Internal Revenue Service?

A. If you are an AI/AN of a federally recognized Tribe or if you are a descendant of a federally recognized Tribe and eligible for or receive services at the Health and Wellness Center you are considered exempt from having to apply for a health insurance and will not be penalized or fined through the Internal Revenue Service.

To get an exemption, members and descendants must apply through the Washington Health Benefit Exchange or provide the appropriate information when they file their federal income tax return.

6 Q: Will I be able to enroll in a health insurance plan, Washington Apple Health or CHIP through the Health Benefit Exchange even if I qualify for an exemption?

A. An exemption won't prevent you from enrolling in a health insurance plan, Washington Apple Health, or CHIP.

You might qualify for certain protections through Washington Apple Health or CHIP, or might qualify for tax credits and cost-sharing (copays, deductibles and con insurance) reductions. In addition to financial documents, you might need your Tribal documents to qualify for some of these special protections.

ties offered, such as the powwows, canoe ceremony, arts and crafts fair, exhibitions and demonstrations and cultural performances, not only provided something for people of all ages to enjoy, but also introduced many people to Native culture and thereby helped build a stronger relationship between tribal and non-tribal communities.

Bigger & Better

The success of Salmon Homecoming 2013 was, in large part, made possible by the tremendous support of the Muckleshoot and Suquamish Tribal Councils. Not only did these two tribes provide much of the financial support needed to produce such a large-scale event, but also staff support.

7 Q. Will I be able to get assistance with paying the cost of my premium?

A. While AI/ANs are NOT exempt from paying premiums, they may be able to get lower costs on monthly premiums through a new tax credit that is paid to insurance plans each month to reduce an individual's premium. Eligibility for the tax credit depends on income, family size, and access to other coverage. Members of federally recognized tribes can use tax credits to pay for premiums for certain plans and still receive cost-sharing reductions as well. The type of cost-sharing reduction depends on income and whether an individual is enrolled in a zero cost-sharing plan or limited cost-sharing plan.

8 Q. Are there special protections for AI/ANs who enroll in Washington Apple Health (formerly Medicaid) and CHIP?

A. AI/ANs who are eligible for or get services from the Health and Wellness Center including Contract Health Services, are exempt from Washington Apple Health premiums and enrollment fees and, if they have ever used one of these programs, they are also exempt from other cost sharing, such as copayments, coinsurance, and deductibles. Certain Indian resources and payments are not counted for Washington Apple Health eligibility- for example.. all fishing income is non taxable and will not be counted as income for Medicaid or the Exchange Health Plans.. and there may be other income exemptions. BUT all per capita checks from Casino revenue will be counted as income. Other income such as bingo/casino/lotto winnings over $1,200 is also considered taxable income. AI/ANs can continue to get services through the Health and Wellness Center regardless of the health insurance plan your enrolled in.

9 Q. What are the special protections for AI/ANs who enroll in a health insurance plan through the Health Benefit Exchange?

A. Members of federally recognized tribes with a household income at or below 300% of the federal poverty level (roughly $70,650 for a family of 4 in 2013 or $88,320 for the same family in Alaska) who are also eligible for the tax credit won't have any out-of-pocket costs like copays, coinsurance, or deductibles for services covered by the health insurance plans through the Washington Health Benefit Exchange.

Regardless of income, Tribal members who enroll in a health insurance plan through the Washington Health Benefit Exchange will not have any out-of-pocket costs such as copays, coinsurance, or deductibles for items or services furnished directly by through the Health and Wellness Center or through referral under Contract Health Services.

10 Q. Is enrollment once a year during a specific date?

A. Members of federally recognized Tribes and descendants who are eligible to receive services through the Health and Wellness center are eligible for monthly special enrollment periods. They can enroll anytime. Benefits begin the first of the month as long as you enroll before the 28th of each month.

We are going to have a dedicated program at the HWC for this service, we are going to call it Muckleshoot Managed Care Program.....

This can and will be confusing to everyone.... But we will do our best to help you all out... as you know by watching TV etc... most all Americans will be confused with the details of this.. today and when it's time to file taxes next year.....

Mona

Ronette

You can apply at the Health and Wellness Center on November 1, 2013 Please contact Mona Millan or Ronette Bailey will be happy to help you = you can call (253) 939-6648 if you have any questions.

We encourage all of patients to apply for any health insurance (including Medicaid) at the HWC.. you might apply for something that you can't get out off and is not what you need.....

Tribal member Walter Pacheco, who serves at President of the Salmon Homecoming Alliance, gave high marks to the sunny weather, and even higher marks to the many tribal departments that pitched in and helped out.

"Not only did the weather hold up on Saturday, but the Tribal Council stepped up the tribe's participation and had a number of tribal departments get involved," Pacheco said, citing the Adult Work Training Program, Muckleshoot Event Planning Committee, Tribal School, Canoe Club and other key volunteers as being major factors in making this year's "bigger and better" Salmon Homecoming one of the best ever..

LI'L MISS MUCKLESHOOT

To kick off the day's festivities, Li'l Miss Muckleshoot, Tamicka Elkins, will welcome fans by riding in on horseback wearing her full regalia and beaded crown as the tiniest Princess of the Muckleshoot Tribe. Yesterday was Tamicka's 5th birthday. Her horse will also be covered in beaded regalia made by her dad, Byron Lloyd, who will lead them to the winners circle where Joseph Martin, the Muckleshoot Indian Tribe's Education Director, and other tribal singers will offer an honor song to Tamicka and her family to celebrate this very special event.

Li'l Miss Skopabsh Tamicka Elkins and her stepdad Byron Lloyd were all set to ride in front of the crowd on a fully beaded horse on the final day of this year's Emerald Downs racing meet. Every detail was in place. There would be an honoring song as Tamicka was led into the winner's circle and it would be a great cultural experience for the fans at Emerald Downs.

And then the weather just went wild! It rained cats and dogs, so Tamicka's big day had to be scratched. But it wasn't cancelled, just postponed until opening day of next year. The events staff at the track was very excited about this, and looks forward to working with the tribe to add more cultural events of this type to the schedule next year.

During the course of Sharon Calvert's long illness, she paid many visits to the Enumclaw hospital. Her longtime partner Bob Charlo recalls that she always said, "We need to get some Native artwork in there."

"We shared projects," he continued, "and so (following Sharon's passing) her project became my project."

Bob found a willing collaborator in hospital president Donna Russell-Cook, and on October 7, a large framed photo located right behind the main reception desk was dedicated. Charlo, a noted photographer, provided his poignant 1989 image of a traditional pow-wow dancer in repose, which is titled Moment.

Donna Russell-Cook picks up the story: "Bob had communicated with us at the passing of Sharon that it was always her wish to have artwork in the hospital to really link the tribal community with the St. Elizabeth Hospital or Franciscan Health System community, because we all live and work and heal in the community on the plateau. And so, we felt it would be very fitting to have this photograph in memory of Sharon hanging in our lobby, so that all who pass through our doors are able to see it and, I think, feel her presence."

STUDENT RECOGNITION PROGRAM

Tribal Council awards Seahawk tickets and gifts to local students

Lyna WhiteEagle

On September 20, 2103 the Muckleshoot Tribal Council awarded Lyna WhiteEagle and her parent Robyn Holt, tickets to the Seahawks game on September 22, 2013 against the Jacksonville Jaguars.

The Tribal Council wanted to recognize an Enumclaw High school student for their exceptional academic work. The standards for student recognition required students to have good attendance, good grades, high GPA, and involvement in extracurricular activities.

Cathy Calvert and Sarah Brassard of the Enumclaw Native Education program presented Lyna to the Tribal Council. Lyna was recognized for her extracurricular activities in FFA, high GPA, great attendance, and consistent good grades. Lyna is an exceptional student who has made her learning a priority. She is dedicated to her future goal of attending college.

Lyna and her mom attended the Tribal Council meeting where Virginia Cross and the Tribal Council presented Lyna tickets, jerseys, and hats. It was a great privilege for Lyna and her family to be recognized for her outstanding academic achievement at Enumclaw High School. At this time, Lyna plans to one day become a police officer, and she is well on her way!

The Tribal Council's support for students' academic success is immeasurable.

Raven Stevenson

Raven Stevenson is a 7th grade student at Olympic Middle School. Raven has great grades, attendance, and an attitude and demeanor that will take her far in life. Here some of comments from her teachers:

Mr. Millican. Raven is a great kid. I didn't have her last year, so I have only known her for the past month, but in that time I have been very impressed with her effort and attitude towards others. She appears to be a "silent-leader" type who is always kind to those around her. She is very intelligent and always gets her work finished. I need more kids like Raven in my classes.

Mrs. Kindem. I had Raven last year as well as this year. She is a model student: pays attention, tries her best, volunteers, gives thoughtful answers. She is able to ignore the poor choices of others and be her own person. I have a great deal of respect for Raven as a student and as a person.

Ms. Englander. I have only had Raven for a short time in Science this year, but in that time she has demonstrated an ability to positively lead her peers. She works well in groups, she follows directions, and is an awesome student! She works hard and never gives up. She isn't afraid to take risks or stand up for herself. She is a huge asset to our class, and I am so happy I get to be her teacher!!!

Mr. Cooper. A wonderful young lady who is a pleasure to have in my Math class. She is very polite and works very hard on her assignments and assessments. She cares about her grades and she helps other students who may be having difficulties with their assignments.

Mr. Moritz. She is a great student. She is on task, even when other students are off task. She is determined, and takes pride in doing her own work.

Mrs. Scott. She is a very sweet and responsible girl.

Ms. Pratt, Auburn School District Native American Coordinator. I've known Raven for many years, since she was at Chinook Elementary. She has always been kind, motivated, organized, and enthusiastic about school. She was also in the Chinook Coastal Dance Group for part of her time at Chinook, showing her commitment to learning about Native American culture.

When I think of Raven, I also think of her mom and dad. At the many events recognizing student success, you could always be sure to see her mom and dad there to support her and celebrate her successes. Raven's traits are no doubt a tribute to her supportive family. Way to go, Raven! Keep it up and you can be anything you set your mind to. Dream Big!

Some of Our Wonderful Students...

Fay Monahan is an awesome student. She is driven to perform academically and works very hard at school. She has a great attitude and is super respectful. Fay serves as a good example for her peer and all of her teacher enjoying having her in class. Last school year Fay helped present the West Auburn Art Display to the ASD School Board.

Trisdin Lozier is a senior at Muckleshoot Tribal School who is on track to graduate this 2013-2014 school year. He has met state testing requirements in HSPE writing and Algebra EOC.

Virginia Marquez is one of the captains on the Muckleshoot Tribal High School volleyball team. Virginia is a sophomore here at MTS. She is 3 credits away from being at Junior status. She is now ahead of her graduating class in credits, in part because of some of the credits she earned in the Early College Program.

Rochelle Oliver attends Auburn Sr. High School. Rochelle is a smart and ambitious young woman who wants to be a veterinarian one day. She is putting in more effort this school year! Her attendance has improved and she is trying to do well and pass her classes this year.

Ralisea Sansom-Jansen attends Auburn Sr. High School. Ralisea is trying very hard this year to pass all of her classes. She has asked one of the Indian Education staff members if they had noticed she has only had 1 tardy so far this year. Additionally, she has taken initiative to ask for help in her classes on more than one occasion so far. Lastly, she is better at communicating with her teachers to find out what she needs to do when absent!

Courtney Morrison is currently a senior at Virginia Cross Native Education Center. She is an incredible artist that implements her own designs in a variety of media. Courtney is a reliable student that always does her best to succeed.

Alyssa Vaiese

While attending the Early College Education Program, Alyssa has gotten very serious about her education. She makes every effort to be on time to school and works very hard get her homework completed. It is exciting to see her grow intellectually, not to mention she is turning into quite the beauty.

Alyssa has the capability to do great things, I am excited to see which career path she decides to take. Whatever it may be, we are here to support her.

Needless to say, we are very proud of Alyssa for the effort that she is putting forth and we appreciate the Early College Education Program for opening her eyes to the possibilities.

Respectfully,
Alyssa's Family

Jose Mendoza

Jose Mendoza has been doing very well at Auburn High School as a Junior. He is maintaining a 3.4 grade point average this term even, with the heavy class load of chemistry, advanced algebra/trigonometry, civics, American Lit, and more. Jose's teachers have great comments about his effort, attitude and manners.

Mrs. Cooke, the math teacher, states, "Jose is a kind, generous young man who always puts forth his best effort. I've found him to be very polite as well, and he has the potential to do very well in college."

Ms. Reinhardt, the French teacher, says, "I have Jose in French 1, he is doing great, he has a good grade, and a good attitude, he is always very respectful."

Mrs. Marshall states, "Jose is doing very well in American Literature and Writing this semester. He currently has an A in the class. He is meticulous when completing homework assignments and has done well on quizzes so far. He asks insightful questions and is an engaged participant in class."

Ms. Killian, Culinary Arts teacher, would like to have Jose cloned! She says, "Jose is a very bright young man and is doing well in Culinary Arts. Jose comes into class and takes initiative even before the tardy bell rings. He is ALWAYS on task and follows through with whatever he is asked to do. He never complains and is positive each and everyday. A bit on the quiet side but never too reserved to ask a question."

Ms. Carroll in chemistry says, "Jose currently has an A in chemistry. All his assignments are in and he has received 100% on each lab we've done so far. I'm very happy with his progress."

Jose, you're doing a super job in high school, and we are so proud of how well you're doing! You are a great role model. Keep up the great work! – Ms. Pratt and Ms. Mizuki, Auburn High School Native American Education Program Staff.

Jose Sanchez

My son, Jose Sanchez, has actively participated in the MOST Early College Program the last two summers in a row. In the beginning he was not a happy camper. This wasn't how he wished to spend his summer! As time progressed, he has a new attitude about the Early College Program and what it offers students. Not only are you able to make up credits, there is the possibility of earning extra credits.

Jose was like most Freshman and had fallen behind in some of his classes; by attending the ECP he was able to make up some much needed credits and at the same time, was able to attend various field trips and visit local college campuses. It was during these college visits that Jose was inspired to work hard! Jose has new hopes of getting accepted in the Auto Body/Mechanics division at Renton Tech via the Running Start program his senior year.

The ECP has really sparked a new energy in my son. He comes home nightly, after a long afternoon workout at football practice, then 2-3 hours at work then sits down at the dinner table to work an additional 2-3 hours on homework. This happens just about EVERY NIGHT! I don't have to ask him to do it these days – he has become self-motivated and determined to obtain the goals he has set for himself.

Jose reading to class

The newly motivated Jose Sanchez is a success story of the MOST Program Early College Program. I'm thankful that the tribe offers this opportunity for students and my hope is for more of our tribal students to jump into the program and get motivated about being a success story!! I am one proud mom! WTG Jose! Keep up the hard work, your destiny is ultimately your responsibility and we are here to help you on your educational journey!

Respectfully Submitted,
Janet Emery, aka MOM :)

Olivia Courville

I'd been tired all morning, then got a copy of my girls progress report. She's doing freakin' awesome, making great grades! A big improvement from last few years. I know how hard it is, given all our family has been through. Makes me so proud! I know how smart she is and there's no limits to what she can do! Being a pushy meany butt mom does pay off! Love you Olivia Laurie-Ann Courville! Feeling proud.

Eye Lash Kisses & 'Where the Wild Things Are'

The devastating loss of Rachel Givens in a hit-and-run collision dealt a stunning blow to the entire tribal community. Children at the tribal school were hit hardest, especially the young athletes that Rachel coached.

I searched the newspaper files to see what I had on Rachel, and what I found was a "Proud Parent" item her mom, Laura, submitted back in 2008 when she won a college soccer scholarship. It started out like this:

"Rachel, When I think of you – I remember... Eye lash kisses... Teaching yourself to ride your own bike... Watching The Little Mermaid over and over... Watching you gnashing your terrible teeth and rolling your terrible eyes and showing your terrible claws while I read Where the Wild Things Are to you..." (There's more. It's all printed on page 13.)

"This is the biggest funeral I've ever seen," Miles

told me. He should know. He drives the hearse for Weeks Funeral Home. Every partition had been opened and every chair was occupied at the Pentecostal Church.

Speakers tried to capture the essence of Rachel in beautiful, moving eulogies. A group of tall girls, now young women, surrounded her wooden coffin and shouted out their basketball chant. With these girls, Rachel had known the thrill of winning the State Championship – not once, but twice. An hour later they would step up and take their turns helping to cover her with earth at the cemetery.

People waited in line to comfort Laura at the dinner afterwards. Many wound up bursting into tears themselves, and Laura was the one to comfort them.

I waited in line like everybody else, and when my turn came, I told her I'd found the "Proud Parent" newspaper item, now five years old. She remembered it, but not exactly what was in it. I told her it was about eye lash kisses and Where the Wild Things Are. Laura's eyes became distant for a few moments, as if she was seeing something far away.

"Yes, I remember now," she told me. "I said good-bye to Rachel with eye lash kisses."

Rachel Givens: "In the Presence of True Greatness"

A Eulogy Delivered by MIT ATOM/Education Joseph Martin

Rachel Givens truly was a gifted athlete Rachel Givens truly was a gifted athlete who brought her passion for basketball and soccer to her work as a coach and as a teacher. At Auburn Riverside High School, Rachel learned a great deal about dedication, determination and domination, as she played a major role in winning back-to-back State Championships in Basketball in 2007 and 2008.

In Soccer at Auburn Riverside, Rachel was selected as the Most Valuable Player of the South Puget Sound League 3A, and was voted two straight years (2007 and 2008) by the Seattle Times as the Number One High School Goalkeeper in the State of Washington.

Rachel Givens still holds the all-time Auburn Riverside High School record for most shutouts by a goalkeeper in the history of the school. This record of 45 shutouts that Rachel achieved in four years represents one of the best shutout percentages for high school goalkeepers in the United States. In fact, when I did the math, Kasey Keller of the Seattle Sounders did not have a shutout percentage in his career that was even close to Rachel's record at Auburn Riverside.

After earning her Para-Educator Certificate in 2010, Rachel joined the staff at the Muckleshoot Tribal School. During these three years at MTS, Rachel worked with many of our students, coached Middle School Girls basketball and served as both the assistant and head coach for the Middle School Co-Ed soccer team.

Rachel worked for the past three years at the Muckleshoot Tribal School as a Kindergarten through Grade Five Paraprofessional in Special Education with Cindy Hamlin, Helen Feiger and Kathryn Campbell. Rachel became an expert in teaching students to become excellent readers and to build their confidence in mathematics.

I had the good fortune of experiencing and also hearing about the excellent teaching and educational work that Rachel accomplished at our Muckleshoot Tribal School. Rachel is greatly respected by all of her colleagues at the Muckleshoot Tribal School.

As a young, American Indian teacher, Rachel Givens was simply one of the best teachers we have known. When I talked to Cindy Hamlin and Andre Pleasant about Rachel's vision for the near future, they both said that Rachel was dedicating herself to extremely important goals: 1. To be the Head Soccer Coach for Muckleshoot Tribal School (which Rachel became this Fall 2013 Season); 2. To work extra hard to someday become the Head Girls Varsity Basketball Coach for MTS; and the third goal is another fantastic goal that not everyone knew about...

In May 2013, Rachel told Andre that she wanted to fulfill her dream of playing in the WNBA. Rachel told Andre that she wanted to do

"two-a-days" and to work hard over the course of the next year to make the roster of one of the WNBA teams. So, throughout the late spring, summer and into the fall of 2013, Rachel was doing weight training, conditioning and working intensively on her basketball skills with Andre, and in various local basketball developmental leagues in the area. The big goal was to prepare herself for the April 2014 WNBA tryouts, such as the Seattle Storm conduct at their training facility on the Seattle Pacific University Campus.

All of us have been touched by Rachel's life. Rachel has achieved incredible excellence in all areas of her life where she has focused: athletics, education, family and friendships. By knowing Rachel, and experiencing her greatness, we all have been in the presence of greatness.

To all of the students at the Muckleshoot Tribal School: "You must never forget that you were taught and coached by a TRUE CHAMPION!!!!" Very few high school basketball players win one, let alone, back-to-back State Championships. Only the very elite basketball players like Rachel achieve this kind of greatness.

In Soccer, very few high school goalkeepers are voted Most Valuable Player of their league and are voted by the Seattle Times as the Number One High School Goalkeeper in the State. Only the very elite soccer players like Rachel achieve this kind of greatness.

In Education, very few teachers in American Indian Communities truly achieve greatness by possessing all of the skills of excellence that are necessary to be a great Native teacher. Only the very elite teachers like Rachel Givens achieve this kind of greatness.

Rachel achieved all of this greatness with humility and grace. Rachel always carried herself in a humble manner and treated everyone with respect. It is with this definition of exactly what Rachel Givens is all about that I am pleased to announce that the Muckleshoot Tribal School has created The Annual Rachel Givens Memorial Scholar-Athlete Award to annually honor the best scholar-athlete at Muckleshoot Tribal School who personifies all of the excellent qualities that defined Rachel Givens.

We have ALL truly been blessed by our creator to have had Rachel Givens be a part of our lives... and to ALL have been in the presence of True Greatness.

Rachel Lucy Givens Eulogy

Delivered October 11th, 2013 by Crystal Conant, One of Her Coaches at Auburn Riverside High School

It is with great sadness and honor that I stand before you today to share the life of Rachel Lucy Givens. Rachel was born in Albuquerque, New Mexico to Laura, her mother, Delores, her grandmother, Berne, her aunt, and Daniel, her uncle. She is of the Bitter Water Clan, but her community became the Muckleshoot.

Rachel graduated from Auburn Riverside High School in 2008 where she was a standout athlete in basketball and soccer. She worked as a Para Educator in a Special Education class for the tribal school and coached middle school basketball and soccer. Along with teaching and coaching, Rachel also competed on various teams with innumerable friends.

Rachel possessed a sparkle in her eyes, a twinkle that you can't really explain... you just had to see it to truly understand this "pull" she had on every heart around her. The relationship she had with her family was vital to her existence. She would do anything for her brothers Josh, Caleb, Sage and Forest, along with her little sister Sarah.

To watch Rachel interact with her mom was to witness pure joy. They were mother and daughter but also the closest of friends. There is a commercial on TV that shows a new mother bringing home her new baby girl for the first time. It is narrated by the voice of the little girl and evokes a nostalgic love between mother and daughter. It talks of the struggles and the good times of raising a child.

The girl's voice says, "...and we grew and grew and grew... because the day I became yours, you became mine." I feel this fits Rachel and Laura so well because they just belonged to each other. You can either thank Laura or blame her for Rachel's sarcasm, humor, and laughter. There was never a gesture, joke, or look that Rachel would make that Laura didn't laugh at. You could tell Laura never got tired of Rachel. They are kindred spirits, connected by laughter, love, and pure joy.

Laura asked me to explain to people why we loved Rachel so much. To convey who she was and what she was about. I started to think about my experiences with Rachel and why I adored her so much.

The first time I saw her she was just a kid. I had just been hired as a new teacher and was hoping to also get to coach basketball. The head coach invited me down to the school to watch summer league. I walked into the gym and saw this girl shooting from well beyond the three-point line. The people sitting on the sidelines were in her way, because if Rachel was in bounds, she was in range. She had no fear. She would pull up from anywhere and every time she hit one, this beaming smile would spread across her face.

For four years I got to watch that smile and bask in the light of her love of life. Sarah Franklin, one of Rachel's dearest friends, said it best, "She walks into a room and she's the center of the party. She's the light in the room, the energy force." You see, Rachel never forced it. She never was anyone other than herself.

She had this easy gait when she walked, never in a hurry, with a bit of a bounce off the heels of her feet. That walk never changed. It was how she walked down the halls at school, how she walked onto the court or field, it's how she walked at graduation, and it's how she walked every time I saw her. Being in Rachel's presence was easy because, like her walk, you always knew what you were getting. She radiated love, generosity, gratitude and just enough mischievousness to keep things interesting.

Rachel's oldest friends tell stories of how they met. Randi claims that after falling off her bike, Rachel walked up to her and said, "Are you that girl that fell off your bike?" Randi replied with a yes, and from then on they were friends. Again, with Rachel it was simple, like breathing.

Rachel and Sarah Franklin were so close as kids that they kept sharing lice back and forth. A phone call to one set of parents merely meant it's time to bust out the olive oil and mayonnaise. I believe Sarah said it was passed back and forth seven times.

They shared a love of the show Zena Warrior Princess and even dressed up as the two main characters for Halloween. Both Sarah and Randi said Rachel just knew them, every part of them and accepted them for who they were... that Rach was just like that, she loved without question.

For most people, the cadence of Rachel's heart became the cadence of their own. Rachel loved – loved in a way that not many people are capable of and that, unfortunately, many never experience; but if you knew Rachel, you knew love. She adored Randi's daughter, she loved her students, she loved her friends, she loved her family, and she loved life. Friends on Rachel's Facebook page said things such as, "she was open hearted," "always saw the positive," "a part of my family," made an impact on who they were, etc.

One of my favorite concepts can be summed up in the idea that Rachel made pretty much everyone feel like she chose them, that they were special. Her former teammates say that Rach was just infectious, that she always cared about others, that she could always find a way to smile which couldn't escape anyone. Rachel loved deeply and purely with no malice, she just loved you.

It is my belief that you can judge a person based on how children respond to them and Rachel was sincere, sweet, happy, and approachable, so of course kids loved her. If it was teaching a five year old how to dribble or reading a book to a friend's little sister, children gravitated to her.

Rachel blossomed at the Tribal School and I think this realization was one she didn't expect. She used her kindness, but also her strong will to be the kind of teacher students wanted to be around. Rachel was safe haven for her friends, and I'm sure she was one for her students as well. There was a gentleness about Rachel, a soft spirit.

Her grandmother describes an instance when she saw Rachel reach out to a child and it is something she is so proud of. She watched as a young boy walk away from a group of kids his age. He went over the goal post and just sat. None of his friends could talk him into coming back to the group. Rachel saw him, went over and started talking. The boy soon stood up and returned to his friends. That was Rachel. She didn't know her grandma was watching, she just wanted to help this boy, she was just inherently good.

I asked lots of people to describe Rachel in five words. Some of my favorites include "love, beautiful, laughter, goofy, compassionate, respectful, joyful, a leader, tough, dedicated, loyal, playful, happy, and heart."

My two favorites paint the most accurate picture of Rachel anyone could show you "giving" and "glue." The first is Rachel's most noble attribute, but I want to talk to you about glue. Glue means to stick, bond, or join. Rachel was glue and a mixture of the greatest glue ever created. She was the glue with her friends. She literally bonded all of these random people together.

She was the glue on the teams she played on. She helped track technical fouls on the wall of the team room and got so mad at her coach she essentially told him where to stick it. They could not have stuck together without the glue.

And finally, Rachel is the glue of her family. The Givens women are strong, happy and brave women who lead their family with patience and power. Although she was the youngest of these amazing women, she was the person that held them together. They were joined together by Rachel. Even now with Rachel gone, she still holds this family and extended family together as one.

To give is literally part of Rachel's name. One of her social networking handles is "Rachel Gives." You couldn't be around her without feeling that force that is Rachel. She gave her time and talents while teaching and coaching; she gave her time and talents to help raise one of her best friend's daughter; and she gave her time and talents to each and every person she ever came in contact with.

The thing is, I guarantee that not once did Rachel ever think that being of service to someone else isn't just what you do. Not once did she question the sacrifices she made all the time to make another human being laugh, smile, feel joy, feel loved, or know that just one person got them. This was Rachel. She loved effortlessly.

As her last act on this earth Rachel chose to be an organ donor. Originally, she did it to get a red heart on her driver's license, but then it became an "I could save someone's life" heart on her license. Sarah said the greatest thing about Rachel's heart. She said, "Someone has her heart, and will be walking down the street smiling from ear to ear and not know why... it will be Rachel's heart smiling."

We will miss Rachel... her love of pickles, clean laundry, shoes, shoes and more shoes, her infectious laugh, her tender hugs, and the way she made each and every person feel... that idea that we mattered, at least to her.

Momma Givens said it best when she wrote this on Rachel's Facebook page, "You make me a better person every single day, hour, minute."

Rachel's legacy will continue on through the people she loved. We honor her today by smiling, laughing, and remembering who she was and what she stood for. Rachel lives on in each of us.

Rachel and her brothers

MUCKLESHOOT KINGS FOOTBALL

By Coach Bill Hawk

Clallam Bay edges Kings 24-22

The Muckleshoot Kings' 2013 football season began with the long trek to Clallam Bay on September 13th with thirteen eligible players. The Kings started on offense and were off to the races on the first play, a 60 yard touchdown run by Loai Lui. Slade Tutilatanakila ran the 2 point conversion, and just like that, the Kings had an 8-0 lead.

Clallam Bay, who defeated the Kings last year 60-26, then mounted a drive down to the Kings ten, but fumbled with Slade recovering. However, the Kings fumbled right back. Clallam Bay then again fumbled, but one of their players picked up the errant ball and scored, though they could not score the extra point.

In the second quarter Slade had a run of 50 yards, when he was caught on the ten yard line. Two plays later, Loai scored to make it 14-6, with no extra point conversion. With 45 seconds to go in the half, the Bears scored to make it 14-12 at halftime.

After a back and forth third quarter, the Bears again scored on a center snap over the head of the QB with one of their players picking it up and rambling into the end zone. Their final score came on a short run in the 4th to make it 24-14.

The Kings did not quit, as Fide Ortiz hooked up on a 43-yard pass to Harvey Starr, with Loai running in the conversion to make the final score Clallam Bay 24, Muckleshoot 22.

There were many hard hits for loss by the Kings' players, notably J R Hamilton, Slade, Loai, Josh Hamilton, Chuck Starr, Ben Lazzar, and Fide. The players were encouraged with their improvement from a year ago against the same team.

Kings overwhelm Tulalip Heritage in 60-16 blowout

Under threatening skies on Friday, September 20, the Muckleshoot Kings football team opened their home season with a re-sounding 60-16 thrashing of Tulalip Heritage in only three quarters.

Through a first quarter drenching rain, the two teams slogged to a 16-14 lead by the visiting Bears. The two scoring plays for the Kings came on long runs, as they have in both games this season, the first on a 60-yard burst through the line by Slade Tutilata-Nakila, followed by a 57-yard run on a sweep by Loai

Lui. Loai also ran in the extra point try after his TD.

A stout defense then held Tulalip from this point until the end of the game while scoring another 48 points. Slade scored three more touchdowns, including a 90-yard run, and a 60-yard pass from Harvey Starr. Loai had one more score and J R Hamilton picked up two scores, one being a 71-yard ramble. A Starr-to-Fide Ortiz completed the scoring on a two point conversion.

Fide, Ben Lazzar, and Daniel Ortiz had outstanding games blocking for the backs, while the entire defense had several hard hits plus an interception by Chuck Starr in securing the win.

The referees mistakenly ended the game prematurely rather than applying the correct mercy rule of a running clock. However, the large crowd went home satisfied with a well-played game by the home Kings.

Kings fall to Wishkah Valley 46-6

Under threatening skies that never materialized, the Muckleshoot Kings football team faced the undefeated Loggers from Wishkah Valley on the 27th of September. Though the Kings were fresh off an impressive win against Tulalip, the only threat on this particular night were the Loggers, who came away with a 46-6 victory.

The tone was set early as a Wishkah runner back to receive the opening kickoff ran the Daniel Ortiz kick back 80 yards for a quick 6-0 lead. It was downhill from there for the rest of the first half as the Kings couldn't contain the running by the Loggers, whose scoring also included a 45-yard interception return for a score and a 40-0 lead.

The second half, however was a different story, as the Kings came storming out and quickly scored on a 71- yard pass play from Fide Ortiz to Harvey Starr. Wishkah was held to only a single touchdown the entire half.

In a game that was actually closer than the final score would indicate, the Kings had two first-and-goals and could not score, plus added a fumble as the runner was crossing the goal line which was recovered by their opponents.

Several players had injuries that kept them out for portions of the game, though none should affect participation in future games.

What is MELA?

By Betsy Myers, Program Manager, Muckleshoot Early Learning Academy

The Muckleshoot Early Child Education facility, home of MELA.

As you may have noticed, we have changed the name of our program from Muckleshoot Head Start to Muckleshoot Early Learning Academy (MELA). This is because our program is one of excellence and we want our name to reflect the high quality of our services.

As an example, the Office of Head Start monitors classrooms with CLASS (Classroom Assessment and Scoring System). A Federal reviewer visited the classrooms two years ago and gave our teaching teams scores well above the national average. This is very rare, particularly in Indian Country.

In addition, due to the efforts of our staff and collaborative partners, our program was awarded a five-year grant, beginning August 1, 2013. Grant periods in the past have been for three years and there are multiple guidelines to meet in order to qualify for this new grant. In fact, Muckleshoot is one of only four AI/AN grantees in Washington State that qualified!

Our program focuses on whole families, rather than focusing only on the students. Key program components include health, family services, special services, nutrition, transportation, and program management and administration. We are hopeful that we will be able to provide families with appropriate tools to help them build a solid foundation for lifelong learning and success.

Our staff takes great pride in the relationships that we build with our students and families, and there is no way we would be this successful without the feedback and contribution from our parents.

Hello Everyone! Some words, would like to share:

Our lands and Mother Earth has another mother, daughter, sister, mate may I say!
I hope and pray my words help some, help her journey from this cold lonely solemn day!
We are the people from the valleys to the coast of the Northwest,
I feel we're one of the top if we all stand abreast.
I can feel our hearts beating softly from inside of our chest!
We can endure this – it's life, it's like we each have our up and our downs!
Women, remember she is with Grandfather now,
Walking beside in a cedar dress with a beaded princess crown!
Men, go on fishing and hunting and provide for yours, now do your best.
And it's alright if you cry and scream from the bottom of your heart.
Yes sir, as I personally knew her she was proud but humble, yeah surely the best!
Children, listen and watch as you grow, how it feels
To become hopefully old, like my G-mother Iola Lobehan Bill,
Remember to respect, show love, peace and your good will.
Now, time will help pass the suffering.
Yes, it's felt, the pain has its cost,
A feeling compared to no other.
But her smile – yes, Jan's smile – you will always see
When you think of her and when you open your eyes.
That's the ancestors saying, "Let go now, we will help her across!"

Thanks, Jan, for your friendship.

Sincerely,

Jon Spencer

“Your Suggestions Count”

The Muckleshoot Health & Wellness Center offers “suggestion boxes” where guests can fill out forms to share thoughts, comments or suggestions. The purpose of these forms is to help us improve the quality of services offered to the community. These forms are not “incident reports”, but rather confidential and private opportunities to share your thoughts on what we are doing well or on ways we might improve.

The suggestion boxes are located in each reception area and the main lobby of the building. The feedback forms are located next to the boxes. The boxes are checked at least twice a month by the Facilities Secretary and then delivered directly and confidentially to the appropriate department manager. Suggestions are then discussed privately at Quality Improvement committee meetings.

If possible, please provide contact information on the suggestion form so the appropriate manager can contact you to address your particular suggestion or area of concern. Again, this would be a confidential and private conversation.

We want to hear from you. Please take a moment to stop by the Health & Wellness Center and fill out a suggestion form today. Your thoughts matter!

Thank you

CONTRACT HEALTH SERVICE (CHS) NOTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

CHS OFFICE (253) 939-6648

1. Notify CHS office before any non-emergent services are rendered to determine patient eligibility, medical priority and to set aside funds for payment. Pre -authorization is mandatory and failure to comply is reason for denial of payment for claim(s).
2. In true medical emergencies, notify the CHS office within seventy two (72) hours of start of services. Failure to comply is reason for denial of payment of claim(s).
3. Prior notification does not guarantee CHS pay for services, unless all other CHS requirements are met. There are some services CHS can not cover.

ALTERNATE RESOURCE REQUIREMENTS:

Muckleshoot CHS is a residual resource and not an entitlement program. In addition to CHS, other resources for health care are available from various state, and federal programs, as well as individual and group health insurance policies. By federal law, CHS must ensure that all resources, where and when applicable, are utilized before CHS can assume financial responsibility for your care.

This means that CHS will not be authorized if you are eligible or would be eligible upon making an application for an alternate resource such as: Medicare (over age 65 or disabled at any age), Medicaid (medical coupons), crippled children or have private insurance etc. Failure to comply with a CHS office referral to an alternate resource will terminate your CHS coverage. You are required to use these benefits as your first source of payment of your medical-related costs.

The CHS office is required, as per IHS Federal Rules and Regulations, which requires all CHS denials to patients be sent by certified mail to the address on file.

Advance Directives

From the desk of Ronette Bailey
 Medical Social Worker
 Muckleshoot Wellness Center

What is an Advance Directive?

This is a way for You to tell your family, friends, and Health Care Providers what kind of medical treatments you DO or DO NOT want if you become unable to speak for yourself in the event of a medical emergency. The Advance Directives generally include the following:

A Living Will (aka: Health Care Directive):

This is a written or printed document that clarifies whether you wish to withhold or withdraw “life sustaining procedures” if you are in a terminal or permanently unconscious medical state.

A Durable Power of Attorney:

This documentation allows you to choose someone to make medical decisions for you if you are not able to do so for yourself. It also allows you to specify what types of decisions your designated contact can make for you.

This type of advanced decision making and documentation can be an important resource in the event of a medical emergency and it can reduce the stress that is often felt by friends and family members at these critical times.

Are you interested in making an Advanced Directive?

Past / Present Elders Project seeks participants

Please, allow me to introduce myself. My name is Bob Charlo, I come from the Eastern side of what is now called Washington State. I traveled here many seasons ago from Kalispel covmtry. My father was Emmett Charloe, Seneca, of Oklahoma, my mother was Rose Seymour Charloe, Kalispel. My grandparents were John and Isabella Abrahamson, both Kalispel. My granma would not speak the white man's language, so when we would go to visit them, she would only speak to us grandkids in Salish. My mom would translate for us. If only I could see their smiles and hear their voices now...

DEAR ELDERS OF THE MUCKLESHOOT COMMUNITY,

The Muckleshoot Tribe is taking another kind of canoe journey, this journey starts with you. It started many, many years ago with our ancestors that lived here. That is what we would like to see happen now, hear the stories, have that part of tribal history saved and shared with the 7th generation.

You and many others in the community have many stories of how life really was, in times that the tribe has very little knowledge of. It is those stories and knowledge that we hope to save. The "Past/Present Elders Project" is the opportunity for you and family to share the valued contribution of life's stories.

It is my wish to have this done in the most respectful and honest manner, to have this done with all the community assistance and involvement possible.

This journey is just beginning, we all have a lot to share. I look forward to hearing and seeing all of you hi the near future. Please feel to contact me 253.217.1050 with any questions.

CAT Program hosts 4th Annual Softball Tourney

By Glorianna Ortiz-Cross

This past August 16th, the tribal development program known as the Career Advancement Training (CAT) Program at the Muckleshoot Casino hosted their 4th Annual Softball LEAD Event. This event is a team building opportunity that allows many different casino and TGA team members to work together and bring their strengths to the field to try and win the championship trophy.

The softball tournament would be three games with five innings each. The winner of game one would play the winners of the second game for a final game to see who would have the bragging rights for a full year.

The first game was the Tenacious Turtles (Tony Pheann, Vikki Simpson, Jerry Cortez, Glorianna O-C, Junior Maldonado, Seyhak Sou, Derrick Meyer, Melvin Cielo, Gary Lemon, Marena Cross, KC Williams, and Brysen Jansen) versus the Honey Nut Ichiros (Monica Simmons, Michael Cassaday, Jeff Sheldon, Melvin Huff, Eric Kirby, Justin Johnson, Joseph Martin, Rene Cisneros, Jeff Stern, Jonathan Herda, and Stacy Sam).

Junior Maldonado from the Turtles started the game off with a home run, but that's all the scoring the Turtles got in the first inning because the Ichiros showed everyone what they were made of. They scored six runs in the first inning with key hits and homers made by Jonathan Herda, Monica Simmons, Jeff Sheldon, and more!

The next couple of innings went by with the Turtles scoring two more and the Ichiros only one. Gary Lemon surprised everyone with his powerful hits. Derrick Meyer and KC Williams showed what they were made of with excellent field work and great hits. Glorianna rounded the bases time and time again – no sooner was she crossing home plate then she was back on the bases running for other players (sliding and falling all around that diamond).

Marena Cross and Vikki Simpson showed that they were a force to be reckoned with showing that they were great support and helped bat in some runs. The Ichiros were giving it their all as well. Joseph Martin and Melvin Huff hit some homeruns in the 4th inning. The 5th inning came around with the Ichiros leading. The Turtles waited until that inning to show everyone there was still some power left behind those players – home runs were made by Junior M. , Melvin Cielo, Brysen Jansen, Tony Pheann, and Derrick Meyer, totaling seven runs scored that inning with the Turtles tying the game.

The last inning was added to determine the winner. The Ichiros batted and fielded like there was no tomorrow, but they couldn't overcome the Turtles' powerful hits and plays. The Turtles scored five runs in that last inning keeping the Ichiros from scoring any runs and ultimately winning the game, 15 to 10! This victory would bring the Tenacious Turtles to the championship game, playing the winner of the second game.

The crowd was pumped up, ready to watch the second game – the Grim Reapers versus the Smokin' Aces. The Grim Reapers players were Mona Mendoza, Wayne Shadd, Gil Adame, Eli Guthrie, Miguel Arreguin, Shaun Hoyt, Stanley Cruz, Cline Ross, Chad Walden, Byron Moses, Alf Tuputala, and Tyrone Simmons. The Smokin' Aces lineup had Malcolm Sutton, Lamar Campbell, Eugene Gibson, Lameko Noase, Corey Cross, Chris Estrella, Ursula Garcia, Amy Castaneda, Lawrence Jerry, Leeland Williams, and Henry Bergstresser.

The lineups for both teams showed that this was going to be a tough, competitive game – and that it was. The Grim Reapers started off with their guns blazing – Gil, Alf, Eli, and Chad all hit homeruns in that first inning and brought in those runners on base starting their game off with seven runs. Smokin' Aces fought back with some good hits by their players as well – both Malcolm and Lawrence made it on base, but it was Corey's triple that brought them both home.

Lamar was up next and showed that ball no mercy – his home run scored another two runs for the Aces. The second inning came and went with the Grim Reapers scoring another five runs – Gil and Chad both with another home run. The Smokin' Aces added another eight runs to their score with deep homarus made by Corey and Henry with base hits, doubles, and triples made by the rest of their team. Both teams held each other at bay for the fourth inning and tied 12 to 12.

The fifth inning brought out the best in some of the players. Shaun hit a homerun for the Aces and hits by Wayne, Gil, and Eli brought in more runs. Ursula, Lameko, and Leeland all had good hits that got them on base. The Smokin' Aces tried to rally to win the game but they fell short in the last inning. The final score was the Grim Reapers with 20 and the Smokin' Aces with 17, moving the Grim Reapers onto the championship game against the Tenacious Turtles.

Both the Grim Reapers and the Turtles were ready to battle it out to be the champion team. The Reapers players came to win – both Mona and Tyrone getting on base waiting to be hit home. Chad hit a three run homer followed by a homerun by Stanley, scoring four runs in the first inning. The Reapers' defense proved tough for the Turtles with the first two batters being the first two outs. Melvin wasn't ready to be the third out and had a good hit (and with help by short-stop who made an error), became the first run for the Turtles. Up next was KC who made an attempt to rally with a triple but fell short after the next batter was thrown out.

The second inning came around and the Turtles were determined to redeem themselves. Base hit after base hit was made by Gary, Seyhak, Glorianna, Corey, Vikki, Junior, and Derrick. The Reapers were only allowed two runs during this inning by the Turtles defense – a home run by Alf, a base hit by Tyrone, and a triple from Cline. The Turtles took the third inning as theirs. Singles, doubles, and triples added nine runs to the Turtles' score but the Reapers weren't going down without a fight. Chad started it off with a home run and his team had a few base hits to bring their runs up.

This game was neck and neck with the final inning coming up – players were out for blood; people were falling, throwing, sliding, and swinging as if their lives depended on it. The Turtles were up to bat – Tony, Vikki, and Derrick got on base hoping to be hit home. Melvin sent them home with a homerun and KC followed with another homer. It was the Grim Reapers' last chance to take the game. They swung and hit with hopes that it'd be enough.

At the end of the game, there were discrepancies with the scores – one scorekeeper saying the Turtles won while the other said the Reapers won. Tempers were flaring – nobody wanted to be the loser. The scorekeepers went over their books and finally, after a few painstakingly agonizing minutes, they came to a decision – THE TURTLES WON 20-19! Tenacious Turtles took the championship trophy and have the bragging rights for the year. Next up was the infamous Casino vs. TGA game.

This game brings out the rivalry between the Casino and TGA (particularly Eugene and Stanley). These two were going at it all day and this game was the perfect time to show each other what they're made of. The taunting and teasing reached an all-time high during this game. TGA came prepared once again with their TGA Regulators jerseys, but would that be enough? That would soon be determined.

The All Stars scored two runs in the first inning while the TGA Regulators scored three. Both teams battled back and forth for the next two innings – the defense for both teams kept each other from scoring and keeping TGA with the lead 3-2. The fourth inning showed more favor towards the Regulators – multiple base hits and a homerun by Eli added another five runs onto their score. The All Stars were struggling to get some runs on the board – Alf got on base followed by a homerun from Jeff, scoring two runs for their team.

The fifth inning is where the All Stars really came alive – it was three up three down for TGA. Base hits and triples added eight runs to the All Stars' score. The Regulators struggled to hold onto their lead but ended up falling short towards the end. I think Eugene's taunting finally got into their heads and distracted them. The Casino All Stars took the "Battle to the Death" trophy for a second year in a row, winning 15 to the TGA Regulators' 14 runs.

It was a well fought battle for all players and everyone was in good spirits with the fun, friendly competition. Training and Development thanks everyone that participated and played – this event brings many people together to team build, network, and most of all, have fun.

CERT Training held at Muckleshoot

By Ada McDaniel, MIT Emergency Preparedness Coordinator

They came from the Muckleshoot Community because they wanted to learn the importance of how to respond in a real – time disaster. They wanted to learn the basics of Search and Rescue, first aid, CPR, and learn to be mentally prepared.
