NATIVE AMERICAN GRADUATES

Native Ed Program Highlights Students' Bright Futures

By Robin Pratt

This year's group of Muckleshoot graduates -- from the Auburn School District, Muckleshoot Tribal School, Enumclaw School District and other school districts near and far -- is truly a group to be proud of! Tribal members can rest assured knowing that the future is bright with these young tribal members ready to make their own way in the world.

From Auburn High School, we celebrate the graduation of 23 seniors, of which seven are Muckleshoot: Andrew Bargala, Justice Bill, Trenton Eyle, Shianna Moses, Ralisea Sansom-Jansen, Christian Starr-Paige and Jacinda WhiteEagle. We also have to recognize the graduation of Nathaniel Williams, as he spent the majority of his high school years at AHS before transferring up north to finish high school.

From the Virginia Cross Center, we celebrate the graduation of Thelma Moses. Amongst this group of graduates, we have true leaders; young ones with great plans to learn and carry on traditions and be positive contributors to their community.

We recognize a total of 38 high school graduates district-wide. Good luck and best wishes to each and every one of you. Here are some highlights of students that were involved with the Native Ed program in one way or another:

Andrew Bargala,
Muckleshoot

Andrew Bargala, Muckleshoot. Andrew will attend Green River College in the fall. Andrew has many shining qualities and will no doubt be successful in his endeavors!

Justice Bill,
Muckleshoot

Justice Bill, Muckleshoot. Justice will attend the University of Washington in the fall. He will likely major in Political Science and then attend law school. He is the son of Willard Bill Jr (Muckleshoot) and Robin Pratt (Tlingit). Justice's parents are so proud of him! He exemplifies the dreams of his ancestors -- his grandfather on his dad's side, Willard Bill Sr, and his grandmother on his mom's side, Lorraine Shane, are beaming from heaven.

Samantha Blake,
Nulato

Samantha Blake, Nulato, Auburn High School. Samantha will attend Central Washington University. She was successful in applying for scholarships and has her first year covered. Way to go, Sam!

Cole Davis,
Tlingit

Cole Davis, Tlingit, Auburn High School. Cole will likely attend Green River College and later transfer to WSU. His major is undecided, but he's leaning toward business and marketing.

Trenton Eyle,
Muckleshoot

Trenton Eyle, Muckleshoot, Auburn High School. Trenton will attend TAP, the transition assistance program in the ASD in the fall. We hope to see his smiling face on occasion near campus!

Adam Irgens,
Blackfoot

Adam Irgens, Blackfoot, Auburn High School. Adam will join the Air Force and be in the security forces.

Brady Irgens,
Blackfoot

Brady Irgens, Blackfoot, Auburn High School. Brady Irgens will join the Air Force. He is going into cyber security.

Michael Leslie,
Ojibwe

Michael Leslie, Ojibwe, Auburn High School. Michael is planning on attending Haskell University where he plans to major in the sciences to pursue a career in wildlife, which will enable him to work outdoors and in nature. He will be a definite candidate for playing basketball at Haskell!

Shianna Moses,
Muckleshoot

Shianna Moses, Muckleshoot, Auburn High School. Shianna is attending the University of Washington in the fall. Shianna will major in computer science and engineering. She hopes to work for Microsoft, then return to the tribe to share her knowledge.

Ralisea Sansom-Jansen,
Muckleshoot

Ralisea Sansom-Jansen, Muckleshoot, Auburn High School. Ralisea is going to study Cosmetology. She plans to study business also, so that she can own her own business one day. The Native Ed program will not be the same without seeing her smiling face every day!

Tyler Snow,
Navajo

Tyler Snow, Navajo, Auburn High School. Tyler is athletic and smart. We'll be watching for where he's heading!

Christian Starr Paige,
Muckleshoot

Christian Starr Paige, Muckleshoot, Auburn High School. Christian plans to pursue a career in art. He is interested in becoming an animator, illustrator, or concept artist.

Cameron Tsosie,
Navajo

Cameron Tsosie, Navajo, Auburn High School. Cameron is attending the University of Washington Tacoma in the fall. Cameron has so many interests -- sports, theater... he will definitely make his mark. We look forward to seeing him as we continue to bring students to UWT every fall.

Rayanne Ward,
Puyallup

Rayanne Ward, Puyallup, Auburn High School. Rayanne is hoping to attend Washington State University, Vancouver. She was undecided in a major field of study when asked, but stated that she finds Psychology interesting.

Jacinda WhiteEagle,
Muckleshoot

Jacinda WhiteEagle, Muckleshoot, Auburn High School. Jacinda plans to attend Green River College. She will decide on her field of study as she continues her education. Jacinda is one that can get anything done when she sets her mind to it. We have all confidence that she will do well in life!

Joliza Feltman,
Yakama

Joliza Feltman, Yakama, Auburn Riverside High School. Beautiful, talented and energetic, she will be successful at whatever she decides to pursue!

Shoshanna Kee,
Navajo

Shoshanna Kee, Navajo, Auburn Riverside High School. Shoshanna plans to major in Business Administration and Marketing at the University of Montana. Shoshanna is greatly involved in cultural activities, is a natural leader.

Thelma Moses,
Muckleshoot

Thelma Moses, Muckleshoot, Virginia Cross Native Education Center (WAHS). Thelma is interested in the field of Forestry. We are all so proud of Thelma and look forward to watching her continue to shine!

Northwest Indian College Graduates for 2016

Community Graduation Celebration

Enumclaw's Native Grads paid a visit to the Tribal Council to thank them for their support.

Officer Eric Anderson Graduates Federal Law Enforcement Training

By Melissa Calvert

I am pleased to present to you Officer Eric Anderson, of the Muckleshoot Wildlife Program. Officer Anderson recently graduated from the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center in Artesia, New Mexico, after completing a 15 week course.

Fellow staff member LeeRoy Courville, Jr. and I had the distinct pleasure of watching Eric graduate along with Eric's mom Colleen Anderson, girlfriend Leandra Rojas, and son Mikey Anderson.

After receiving his certification, Eric requested that his son, Mikey pin his badge for him. Officer Anderson was then officially sworn in and has returned home to serve his duties as an officer of the Muckleshoot Wildlife Program.

Good job Eric – Welcome Home!

We are very proud of you, Cameron!

We would like to recognize Cameron Williams for getting promoted to 6th grade at MTS. We are very proud of our son and we can't wait to see what else he accomplishes in middle school.

He ended his elementary school year by receiving Student of the Year, as well as six other awards.

Thanks to our family here and in New Mexico for always supporting Cameron, whether it be in school or in basketball, we know we can always count on each & every one of you.

Proud Parents,
Lee & Lacey
